

FUGGETABOUTIT

(forget about it)

I. You must forget the past so you can move into your _____

A. You must simultaneously

1. forget what is _____

2. reach forward toward what is _____

B. Your past is designed to keep you in the _____

C. The Apostle Paul had to release his past identity as Saul, a persecutor of Christians, in order for him to _____ in the ministry to which God called him.

II. God's _____ is new every day.

A. Paul obtained mercy for the things he did in his _____

B. God will blot out your _____

C. God is merciful and will not _____ your sins when you repent and ask for forgiveness.

III. _____ and _____ go hand in hand.

A. You must _____ yourself as much as you _____ others

B. To forgive by _____ means to do it simply because the Word says so

C. When you pray, forgive, so that your prayers can be _____

D. Don't be classified as _____ because you won't forgive others.

E. Be quick to _____, quick to _____ and quick to _____